Never has there been in Richmond such a stock of goods at the prices. The larger buying not only gives you the wider choosing, but also a sufficient saving to make shopping here interesting. The very little prices are the result of a determination to sell goods less than you pay elsewhere, because we are satisfied with a smaller profit. It's a factory to shopper sale, as you pay no middleman's profit.

Heavy Tobacco Sales.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SOUTH BOSTON, Va., March 26.—South Boston has eclipsed any market in the State of Virginia for good average of tobacco. Twelve million (12,000,000) pounds of the 1903 crop of tobacco has been sold in 24 hours, and it is thought that only 30 per cent. of the crop is now in the hands of the farmers.

The last part of the programme is to be devoted to an occasionally fine rendition of A. R. Gault's oratorio, "The Holy City." This work is to be sung by an excellent chorus, the personnel of which consists of fifty picked voices from the choir of Grace Episcopal Church, prominent members of the Wednesday Club.
The proceeds of the concert are to be devoted to the increase of the organ fund of Grace Episcopal Church.

An Attractive Concert.

One of the most attractive musical events announced for the post-1904 season is a concert, to take place at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall on the evening of Thursday, April 14th. Among the prominent musicians of the city participating in the programme are Mrs. W. H. O. McGeehan, Miss Mary Shelton, Miss W. N. Oughart, Miss Mabel McMan, Mr. R. C. Tupman and Mr. Selden Walke. Most attractive numbers are to be rendered by these well known artists.

Refreshments were served, and the guests were entertained with piano selections by Miss Della Belle West and Miss Georgia Black.

House Cleaning Time.

You have no idea what wonders the WANT ADS. in The Times-Dispatch work until you try them. It pays to be convinced.

GENEALOGY

Jennings family from William Jennings, of England, 182, of the great "Jennings estate," down to nearly the present time, but we fail to find among the descendants the name of Governor Edmund Jennings, of Virginia, of 1766, though he might be connected with them through other branches. You ought to be able to find something of him in the State Library.

From "B. W. Palmer, P. M.," Carterville, Cumberland county, Va. "The genealogical department, Times-Dispatch."

I address you this with the request that you enlighten me as much as possible in regard to my family, who have been residents of the State for over 200 years.
I was born in Cumberland county, 1846; my father, John F. Palmer, was born in Cumberland county, 1822; my grandfather, John Palmer, was born in Cumberland county, 1791; my great-grandfather, Fleming Palmer, was born in Cumberland county, 1761; my great-great-grandfather, William Palmer, was born in Henrico county, 1724, which then embraced both Goodland and Cumberland. This is as far back as I can trace the Palmer family from the Bible register which I have.
